RUT950 Declaration of Software Security

Main Page > General Information > Devices Security > RUT950 Declaration of Software Security
❌

Penetration Testing is one of the most cost effective tools to detect, analyze and make informed decisions about how to fix vulnerabilities and misconfigurations in business applications, IT, mobile and Wi-Fi infrastructures. NTT Security use a variety of Penetration Testing approaches and techniques so that manufacturers can see their business as an attacker would, avoiding costly breaches and achieving compliance by discovering and evaluating risk.

☐

Contents

Description

Teltonika's RUT950 router has been evaluated by NTT Security experts and the overall security risk level has been rated as 'Low'.

We are proud to have achieved this rating and will continue to improve the security of our products.

The aforementioned security changes are available from firmware version RUT9XX_R_00.05.01.5. You can download it from here.

Attachments

❌
Declaration of Software Security

You can the find PDF version of the declaration here.

External links

- NTT Security
- RUT950 security test