Template:Webui system user scripts summary

The User Scripts function allows users to write their own shell scripts that will be executed during the router's booting process.